WELCOME JAKARTA

A City Where Stories Come to Life

Welcome to Jakarta—a vibrant city where cultures meet, ideas move, and stories come to life.

As Indonesia's dynamic capital, Jakarta is a city of contrasts and connections. Modern skylines stand alongside historic neighborhoods, traditional culture meets contemporary creativity, and diverse communities come together to shape the city's ever-evolving identity.

More than a center of business and government, Jakarta is a growing hub for culture, creativity, and the creative economy. Its energy, diversity, and constantly changing landscape provide endless inspiration for creators from Indonesia and around the world.

JAKARTA FILM SUMMIT

WELCOME TO JAKARTA

Jakarta: A City of Cinema, Business, Culture & Creativity

For filmmakers, Jakarta is more than a destination. It is a story waiting to be told.

From historic streets and cultural landmarks to modern architecture, creative districts, public spaces, and vibrant urban life, Jakarta offers a diverse cinematic landscape with countless possibilities.

The city also brings together filmmakers, creative talents, businesses, investors, communities, and institutions—creating opportunities for meaningful collaboration across film, tourism, culture, technology, and the creative economy.

A Warm Welcome from Jakarta Film Commission

Through the Jakarta Film Commission, we are delighted to welcome filmmakers, industry professionals, creative talents, partners, and guests to Jakarta Film Summit.

The summit is a meeting point for ideas, perspectives, and connections—bringing together the film community to explore new opportunities, strengthen collaboration, and celebrate the potential of Jakarta as a vibrant film city.

We invite you to experience Jakarta beyond the summit.

Explore its neighborhoods. Discover its creative spaces. Taste its flavors. Meet its people. And perhaps, along the way, find a story of your own.

Welcome to Jakarta.
Welcome to a city full of stories.

Park Hyatt Jakarta

Jl. Kebon Sirih No.17-19, Kb. Sirih, Kec. Menteng, Jakarta, Daerah Khusus Ibukota Jakarta 10340

TRAVEL SMART

PLAN AHEAD
Check your route before leaving the hotel.

LEAVE EARLY
Jakarta traffic can be unpredictable, especially during peak hours.

STAY CONNECTED
Keep your phone charged and have access to mobile data.

MOVE WITH EASE
Choose the transportation mode that best suits your destination, schedule, and comfort.

SEE YOU AROUND JAKARTA

GETTING AROUND JAKARTA

AIRPORT → HOTEL

Soekarno-Hatta International Airport → Park Hyatt Jakarta

Recommended option: Private car / taxi / ride-hailing

The most convenient option, especially for international guests with luggage, is to travel directly from Soekarno-Hatta International Airport (CGK) to Park Hyatt Jakarta.

Depending on traffic conditions, the journey generally takes approximately 45–90 minutes.

Airport: Soekarno-Hatta International Airport (CGK)

Destination: Park Hyatt Jakarta, Central Jakarta

Travel tips:

- Use an official airport taxi or a trusted ride-hailing service.
- Allow additional travel time during weekday peak hours.
- For airport transfers arranged by the summit, follow the designated pick-up and drop-off information provided by the organizing team.

GETTING AROUND JAKARTA

MRT JAKARTA

Fast, Comfortable & Connected

The MRT is one of the most convenient ways to travel across Jakarta, particularly between Central and South Jakarta.

The current North–South MRT Phase 1 operates between Lebak Bulus and Bundaran HI, with Bundaran HI Bank DKI as the northern terminal.

From the station, guests can continue by:

- Taxi
- Ride-hailing service
- TransJakarta
- Walking, depending on the destination and weather

NEAREST MAJOR STATION

Bundaran HI Bank DKI

GOOD FOR:

Central Jakarta • Sudirman • Senayan • Blok M • South Jakarta

Travel tip: Use the MRT during peak traffic periods when traveling along the Sudirman–Thamrin corridor.

TRANSJAKARTA

Explore Jakarta by Bus

TransJakarta operates an extensive network of BRT, feeder, and Mikrotrans services throughout Jakarta. Its current network includes routes connecting Central Jakarta with areas such as Senen, Tanah Abang, Dukuh Atas, Bundaran Senayan, Blok M, and other major districts.

For visitors staying around Central Jakarta, TransJakarta can be useful for reaching:

- Monas
- Kota Tua
- Senen
- Tanah Abang
- Dukuh Atas
- Blok M
- Other creative and cultural destinations

Travel tip: Check the latest route and operating information through the official TransJakarta channels before departure, as routes and service patterns may change.

COMMUTER LINE

Connecting Jakarta & Greater Jakarta

The KRL Commuter Line connects Jakarta with surrounding cities and residential areas across Greater Jakarta.

It is particularly useful for guests traveling to or from areas outside Central Jakarta, including destinations in Bogor, Depok, Tangerang, and Bekasi, depending on the route.

For guests using commuter rail, major interchange stations such as Manggarai and Sudirman can provide connections to other parts of the city.

Travel tip: Allow extra time for transfers and avoid peak commuting hours when possible.

GETTING AROUND JAKARTA

TAXI & RIDE-HAILING

Door-to-Door Convenience

For direct and comfortable travel, taxis and ride-hailing services are widely available throughout Jakarta.

Ride-hailing is particularly convenient for:

- Airport transfers
- Hotel-to-venue travel
- Late-night transportation
- Locations that are not directly connected to rail or BRT stations

RECOMMENDED OPTIONS:

- Bluebird (Taxi)
- Gojek
- Grab
- Hotel taxi / concierge service

Tip: Always confirm the vehicle plate number and pick-up point before entering the vehicle.

GETTING AROUND JAKARTA

WALKING & PEDESTRIAN INFORMATION

Discover Jakarta on Foot

Central Jakarta offers several pedestrian-friendly areas, particularly around major public spaces, transit hubs, and commercial districts.

For short distances, walking can be a pleasant way to experience the city and discover cafés, restaurants, architecture, and creative spaces along the way.

For a comfortable walk:

- Wear comfortable footwear.
- Carry drinking water.
- Use designated pedestrian crossings and sidewalks.
- Be mindful of traffic when crossing roads.
- During the day, consider sun protection.
- During rainy periods, carry an umbrella or light rain jacket.

A NOTE FOR VISITORS

Jakarta is a tropical city with warm and humid weather. Travel times can vary significantly depending on traffic, weather, and time of day.

When in doubt, allow extra time.

EAT LIKE JAKARTA

Iconic Flavors, Cinematic Spaces

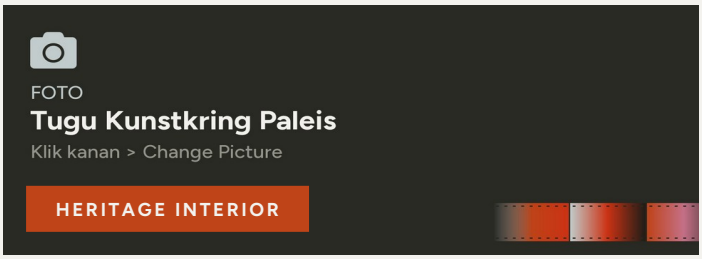

From century-old coffee shops to street-side woks, Jakarta's food tells the story of the city. These spots are as memorable on screen as they are on the plate.

Kopi Es Tak Kie

Gang Gloria, Glodok · Since 1927

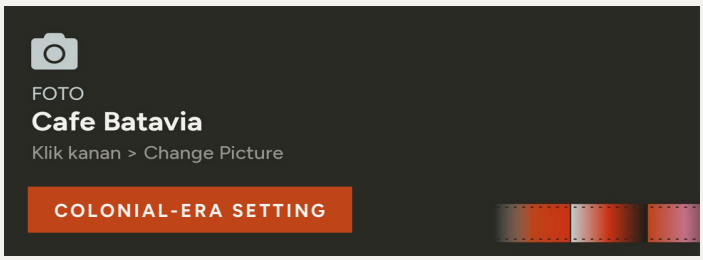

One of Jakarta's oldest coffee shops, serving iced coffee in a narrow Chinatown alley lined with food stalls.

Tugu Kunstkring Paleis

Jl. Teuku Umar No. 1, Menteng

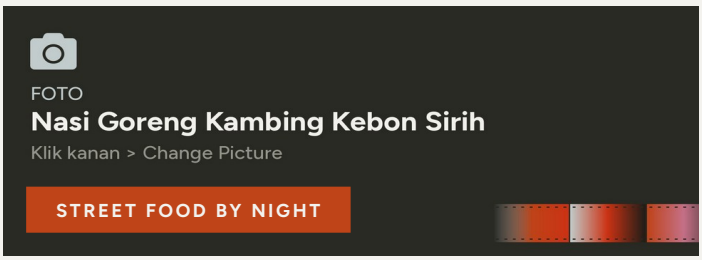

A 1914 colonial landmark, once home to Batavia's art circle, now a restaurant filled with Indonesian art and antiques.

Cafe Batavia

Fatahillah Square, Kota Tua

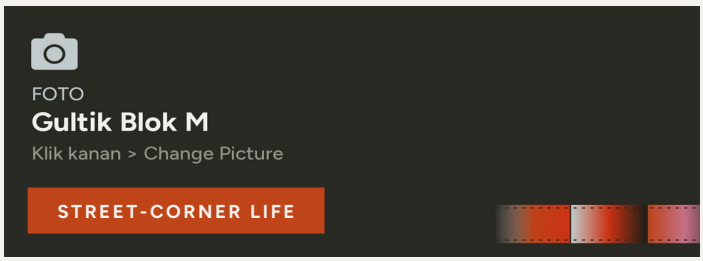

Indo-Dutch classics in a centuries-old building overlooking Fatahillah Square. Try the signature klappertaart.

Nasi Goreng Kambing Kebon Sirih

Kebon Sirih, Central Jakarta · Since 1958

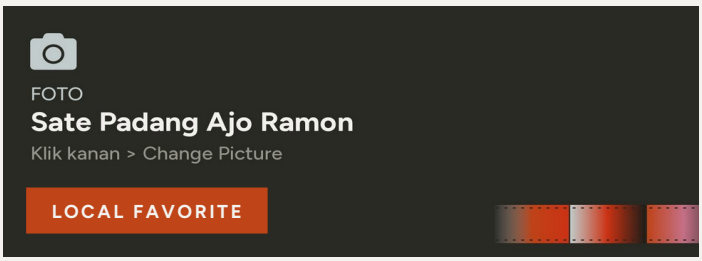

Spiced goat fried rice cooked in giant woks by the roadside, a short ride from the summit venue.

Gultik Blok M

Jl. Mahakam, Blok M

"Gulai tikungan": bowls of beef curry served at a row of street-corner stalls, busy until late at night.

Sate Padang Ajo Ramon

Jl. Cikajang, South Jakarta

A Jakarta favorite for Padang-style satay with thick, spicy sauce, served with lontong.

Filming at private venues requires permission from the venue owner. For location facilitation, contact Jakarta Film Commission.

JAKARTA CREATIVE DISTRICT

Where Makers Meet

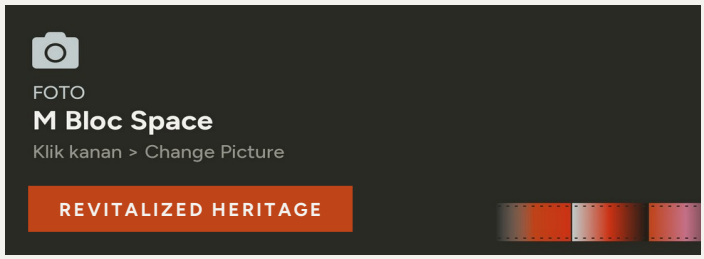

Jakarta's creative energy lives in revitalized heritage buildings, arts centers and neighborhood hubs where artists, designers and filmmakers meet.

Taman Ismail Marzuki (TIM)

Jl. Cikini Raya, Central Jakarta

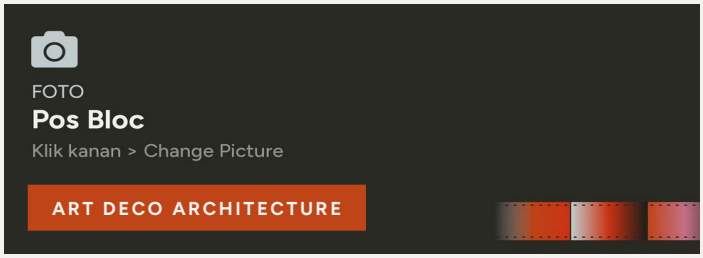

Jakarta's landmark arts center, with theaters, galleries and a library, and home to the Jakarta Film Commission office.

M Bloc Space

Blok M, South Jakarta

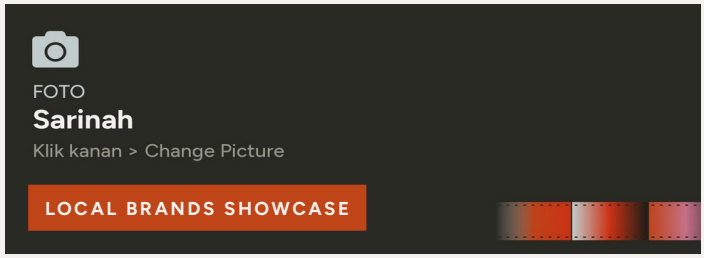

Former state-company buildings transformed into a creative hub with local brands, cafés and a live-music venue.

Pos Bloc

Jl. Pos No. 2, Pasar Baru

The Art Deco Philatelic Building, revitalized in 2021 into culture halls, creative spaces, cafés and antique shops.

Sarinah

Jl. M.H. Thamrin, Central Jakarta

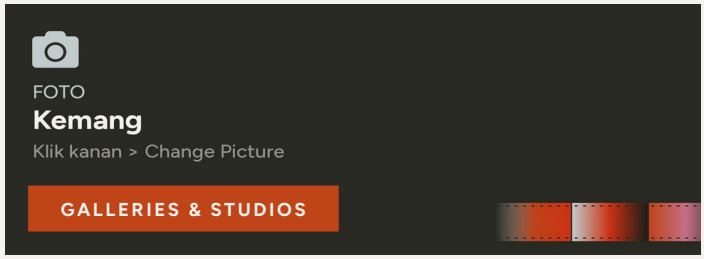

Indonesia's first department store, reborn as a showcase for local brands, crafts and creative products.

Kota Tua Museums

Fatahillah Square, West Jakarta

The Jakarta History Museum, Wayang Museum and Fine Art & Ceramics Museum, set around the old town square.

Kemang

South Jakarta

A neighborhood of galleries, design studios and independent cafés, including Dia.Lo.Gue Artspace.

Filming at private venues requires permission from the venue owner. For location facilitation, contact Jakarta Film Commission.
